Awesome game. Been playing it since it was free. The new update really increases the variety.. you, you ♥♥♥♥ing bad-daddied, small foot-having, soda pop-riding piece of waste. This is the end of the world, as its continuous levels reinforce the fact that you are currently being detached from reality. I sincerely hope that the designers of this sorry excuse for a title know that what they did should be classified as a violation to basic human rights, and that their actions have resulted in the downfall of my sanity. I would be genuinely happy to see the public flogging of such a malicious organization. The "game" itself is exactly as its tags suggest; psychological horror. It has its own way of wiggling its way into your innocent mind and slowly breaking you down. The end result, as would be expected, is ultimate and utter dissapointment, as you then realize what you have subjected yourself to in the past couple of hours. The very idea of this game's existence is proof of the end being near.

FINAL RATING: 6/10. On the bright side, I got it for less than half a dollar.

On the negative side, this game is impossibly difficult. There is little to no touch on the keyboard controls, and that makes it very difficult to negotiate the obstacles. If you thrive in a state of frustration, this game is for you.. I really enjoyed this game as it was something different that branches of from the main series itself. I myself played for ten minutes and got all the achievements, but it was really fun! It's free so don't be afraid to play a little bit of it. The other thing I liked about this game is the OST which is amazing like the other games!. Only played in Oculus VR Mode)

Super fun game, solid gameplay, very balanced!

Its everything it promises to be and more, works super well in VR and is just overall a super fun game to play.

If youre looking for a solid RTS/Tower Defense game, this is definitely one to pick up!. This is not even a game.

I wonder why is this even on steam?

It took 11 minutes to get to the credits.. Simple and cheap game that supports the HTC Vive trackers! Totally worth if you own two or three trackers!. Sublime action wth puzzle elements, control is slick and just rght, brilliant presentation especially the superb music. A real joy to play.

I bought this for £3 and I still want my money back. It's terrible to use the teleport system. It barely registers your controller presses and it takes 1-5 attempts to actually teleport for movement.

It's a shame as I was interested in the story and an Alice world but the game doesn't actually really work.. Wanted to like this game. Has good old school NES gameplay. Pretty short, and levels aren't that interesting. Cool upgrades. What did it is the mechanics and platforming, which were too amateur-ish. The jump and falling are super jerky. When you jump up in the air or let off the jetpack, you fall way too quickly and just jerk down. When you boost up you jerk up high into the air. It is not smooth or intuitive at all. When you get hit there is the dumb mechanic of you are stunned and fall back a decent amount, which just makes platforming frustrating and not fun. You get 3 lives to complete 6 levels, and there are a few 1-ups and a few healths scattered in there. If you die on the final stage you have to do it all over again. This isn't bad initially. Then there is the hitboxes, which are spotty. Enemies fire at you immediately when they get on screen and before you can see or react to them, meaning you get hit when there is nothing you can do about it. The bottom of the screen is terrible. It registers you dying when only a bit of your foot touches it. This makes no sense because many time on the final stages you are expected to fly under things, and with the jerky unintuitive dropping and flying there is no way you might not graze the screen, but in this game thats an instant death and restart the level. The poor flying also doesn't work when they want you going in between top and bottom spikes, and you can't just hold it and keep it. The instant deaths from the bottom of the screen, poor jetpack mechanics, annoying enemies attacking before you see them, repeated 6 levels with 3 lives, and getting knocked back, all make this game poor by NES standards. Games back then usually had more polish. 4.5/10. This game is absolutely amazing! It rivals Job Simulator for a great cooking simulator. My wife is IN LOVE with Diner Dash style games and this one is BY FAR her favorite VR game at the moment. It's almost a nightly ritual now where her and I have to play this game together. She always uses the VR headset and cooks while I'm on the keyboard & mouse and I'm serving the food. 10/10 would buy again.

The only issue is the fact I cant use the achievements in my steam achievements showcase
(which is the only reason I bought the game anyway)

That being said, EASILY THE BEST GAME ON STEAM 10/10. this game is aweosme love it. amazing game! love the goodies and shop items! weekly rewards! this game is about your strategy, not rng. buy it now! just bought all the dlc to support the devs! hoping for awesome content to keep flowing in!
